

Name _____ Period _____

Night

Assessment Preparation: Vocabulary Extension

sages	interspersed	monocle	indifferent	camaraderie	invective
lucidity	oblivion	graven	hysterical	oppressive	harangued
veritable	colic	liberation	compulsory	concurred	infernal
crematoria	hermetically	irony	wizened	pious
illusions	crematorium	interrogating		concentration camp

Directions: Using the vocabulary words from Section Three, answer the following questions or choose the word that best completes the sentence. Write your answer on the line provided. Each word will be used only once.

- Which word describes a place of imprisonment without due process of law?
Answer: _____
- Children whose parents don't like their actions might be _____ by them.
Answer: _____
- Something sealed from leaks of water and air might be called _____ sealed.
Answer: _____
- A _____ might be worn to clear a person's vision in only one eye.
Answer: _____
- A drug addict, in a moment of _____ might decide to check himself into rehab.
Answer: _____
- Decide upon a word that could be a synonym for "freeing" or "dismissal."
Answer: _____
- At school, things like bringing pencil and paper to class, remaining quiet, using proper language, and respecting authority are considered _____.
Answer: _____
- Choose a vocabulary word that has the same meaning as "mentors" or "wise persons."
Answer: _____
- Many people are fascinated by magic, which is actually just a series of _____.
Answer: _____
- Plural form of the answer to #16
Answer: _____
- When things are strewn about they can be said to be _____.
Answer: _____

Name _____ Period _____

12. Supply a synonym for "agreed" or "cooperated."

Answer: _____

13. When someone is described as a _____ old man, he usually looks dried up, wrinkled, withered and shriveled.

Answer: _____

14. Babies often have _____, characterized by crying due to pain in the abdomen or bowels.

Answer: _____

15. The feeling of _____ makes a person feel completely forgotten or alone.

Answer: _____

16. Name for a furnace used in the burning of human bodies.

Answer: _____

17. This word can be used as a synonym for "carved," or "impressed."

Answer: _____

18. When someone does not care about something, he is said to be _____.

Answer: _____

19. Provide a synonym for "uncontrollable" or "irrational."

Answer: _____

20. The high school principal just might find himself _____ two fighting teenagers.

Answer: _____

21. Lying under a tree on a warm spring day could bring out _____ feelings in some.

Answer: _____

22. This word is a synonym for "hellish" or "diabolical."

Answer: _____

23. The Nazis behaved in an _____ manner.

Answer: _____

24. I said I had to work all weekend. She said, "Awesome!" This is an example of _____.

Answer: _____

25. In a fight, or in times of extreme stress, people often shout _____ at each other.

Answer: _____

26. For those who love chocolate, Sees provides a _____ field day.

Answer: _____

27. Mutual trust and friendship can also be called _____.

Answer: _____