It's All Greek to Me!

Researching the Greek Gods and Goddesses

For this assignment, you and a partner will be following a series of steps in order to learn and present new information about the Greek gods and goddesses. The project will culminate in a poster or PowerPoint and a brief presentation about your god or goddess. Make sure you hang on to this paper, as it will be collected when you give your presentation.

This assignment is due _____

Step 1 Choose your god or goddess from the attached list and write it below.

The god(dess) I've chosen to research is _____

Step 2 Research your god or goddess.

Document the sources you've used below. You must use at least three different sources. Cite your sources in MLA format on a separate Works Cited page (no parenthetical citations necessary).

Web Source (Mythman, Mythweb, The Pantheon): _____

Book Source: _____

Encyclopedia Source (World Book Online): _____

Step 3 Find a thorough amount of background information about your god or goddess.

*Note: you may not be able to answer all of these questions.

Parents?: _____

Siblings?: _____

Married?: _____

Children?: _____

(S)he lives?: _____

(S)he is from?: _____

Step 4 Find out some characteristics of your god or goddess.

Special talents, skills, or traits include _____

Weaknesses, flaws include _____

Step 5 Find out the myth surrounding your god or goddess.

In your own words, retell your god(dess)'s myth or creation story.

Step 6 Create a poster, Keynote, or PowerPoint that illustrates information about your god or goddess.

Remember to make sure your visual aid is appealing and can be easily seen from anywhere in the classroom. Do not use sentences or paragraphs on your visual aid, and keep in mind that audiences prefer to look at pictures and brief bullet points of information. Remember: you must cite all images in MLA format!

Step 7 Present your information.

In a brief presentation, tell the audience about your god(dess), his/her characteristics, and his/her myth while using your poster or PowerPoint as a visual aid. You will be graded for your content, citations, and visual aid. Remember to divide responsibility for this project equally! Both partners must research, design, and speak equally!
